

Why does my Robinhood account not let me withdraw money? Customer support >>

Why Does My Robinhood Account Not Let Me Withdraw Money? [1→888→576→2041]

Introduction [1→888→576→2041]

If your account on Robinhood is not letting you withdraw money, it usually means your funds are not fully available yet or your account has a temporary restriction.  [1→888→576→2041]

This is a common issue and is often related to settlement rules or security checks.  [1→888→576→2041]

Main Reasons You Can't Withdraw Money [1→888→576→2041]

1. Unsettled Funds (T+2 Rule) [1→888→576→2041]

When you sell stocks, the money takes 2 business days to fully settle.  [1→888→576→2041]
During this time, you can trade but cannot withdraw the cash.  [1→888→576→2041]

2. Recent Deposit Hold [1→888→576→2041]

If you recently added money via bank transfer, Robinhood may place a temporary hold (up to 5 business days).  [1→888→576→2041]
This is to prevent fraud and failed transfers.  [1→888→576→2041]

3. Account Restrictions or Review [1→888→576→2041]

Your account may be restricted due to:

- Security review
 - Suspicious activity
 - Verification issues (KYC)  [1→888→576→2041]
-

4. Pending Trades or Orders [1→888→576→2041]

If you have:

- Open positions
- Unsettled trades
- Margin usage

 Your withdrawable balance may be limited.  [1→888→576→2041]

5. 🏠 Bank Account Issues 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Withdrawals may fail if:

- Bank is not verified
- Name mismatch exists
- Bank account is disconnected 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

6. 💰 Withdrawal Limits 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

There may be daily or weekly withdrawal limits depending on account status. 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

🔧 How to Fix Withdrawal Problems 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

- ✓ Wait for funds to fully settle (T+2) 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]
- ✓ Check “Withdrawable Cash” instead of buying power 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]
- ✓ Verify your bank account details 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]
- ✓ Complete identity verification if needed 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]
- ✓ Contact Robinhood support if issue continues 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

? FAQs 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Why is my money showing but not withdrawable? 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Because it is still unsettled or under holding period. 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

How long does it take to withdraw money? 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Usually 2–5 business days depending on settlement and bank processing. 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Can Robinhood block withdrawals permanently? 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Only in rare cases involving compliance or fraud investigation. 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

📊 Meta Description 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Learn why Robinhood does not let you withdraw money, including causes like unsettled funds, holds, restrictions, and how to fix it. 🔗 [1→888→576→2041]

Conclusion [1→888→576→2041]

Most withdrawal issues on Robinhood are temporary and caused by settlement delays, bank holds, or account checks.  [1→888→576→2041]

Once these are cleared, you can withdraw your money normally.  [1→888→576→2041]